DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed with an amendment on 6 September 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The arguments are addressed at para. 5 below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-5, 7-11 and 13-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Milnes et al. (US006118492A).
4. Milnes et al. teaches (independent claims 1, 7 and 13) a method, computer readable storage medium and apparatus, the method comprising: receiving content information (TV schedule information, col. 3 lines 6-7) from a content service provider/broadcaster for one or more TV program stored content data files (col. 6 lines 28-30); requiring the content service provider/broadcaster to pay an additional fee to be listed in a particular EPG (col.4 lines 36-37), which reads on allowing the content service provider/broadcaster to determine a number of "line items" (lines) in an EPG (para. 6 below); allocating the determined number of line items in an EPB and merging the content information for display in the determined number of line items (col. 3 lines 19-20 and 33-34); and charging each of the one or more service providers/broadcasters a predetermined amount for each allocated line item.
5. Applicant argues (p. 10, bottom) the reference teaches that it is the system operator, not the content service provider, which determines the number of line items to be listed in the EPG. The examiner disagrees. Applicant and the examiner agree that col. 4, lines 36-37 reads as follows: "The system operator may also charge each broadcaster an additional fee to be listed on this particular guide.” Since the broadcaster pays, the broadcaster determines. It is not the piper that determines the tune; it is whoever is paying for the music that determines the tune.

6. Milnes et al. also teaches claims 2, 4, 8, 10, 14 and 16 at the citations given above; claims 3, 9 and 15 (col. 2 lines 4-6 and col. 5 lines 1-7 with Fig. 4); and claims 5, 11 and 17 (col. 2 lines 44).

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
8. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

12. AFTER FINAL PRACTICE – Consistent with MPEP § 706.07(f) and 713.09, prosecution generally ends with the final rejection. Examiner will grant an interview after final only when applicant presents compelling evidence that “disposal or clarification for appeal may be accomplished with only nominal further consideration” (MPEP § 713.09). The burden is on applicant to demonstrate this requirement, preferably in no more than 25 words. Amendments are entered after final only when the amendments will clearly simplify issues, or put the case into condition for allowance, clearly and without additional search or more than nominal consideration.
13. Applicant may have after final arguments considered and amendments entered by filing an RCE.
14. ABANDONMENT – If examiner cannot by telephone verify applicant’s intent to continue prosecution, the application is subject to abandonment six months after mailing of the last Office action.
